

Spanish Cowboy

---

Foreign town and magic land the Spanish guitar in my hand the sun is shining down on me and many weirdo i can see

Deep and wide is your land away from it all is fine My shoes are full of white sand always along the line but Never think of never Push on along the road
I didn't mean for ever.
the sun does not explode

when the drums begin to roll, in my head and in my soul
I have been away from home
And my dream no more will roam
