

The cardsharp song (ROSA-X, M.Schirmer)

I would want to say nothing bad I remember what you sometimes had I have not forgotten after all this time I didn't mean to make you glad and the wind says good bye
and the rain sings - Oh, you know why

I know from the start you go back to hellfire - I believe but oh no my friend
this is not the end
I'm not sad - That's not bad.

Now you've lost me - now you've gone

I 'm a bit confused When I look back what you really wanted I don' t know he stole my cigarettes and stole my mind from me But I shall not understand

and the wind says good bye
and the rain sings - Oh, you know why.

Ref.

I will never lie to you again
In the thunder, lightning, or in rain I don 't want to cheat only listen to the beat But I have no trust in my brain
and the wind says good bye
and the rain sings
Oh, you know why
