

Good for nothing (ROSA-X, M.Schirmer)

all you need is someone to like you.

give me a diamond so- big as my shoe

what i need is someone to save me

morning-skies across the shiny sea

white sand and heavy stone

my direction is unknown

good for nothing walks alone

i come here and ruin everything.

All I do is eat, and sleep, and sing

I don't need to hear any more.

I don't need to take down open door
