

vibrant colors (ROSA-X, M.Schirmer)

in the nighttime when I' m see nothingthe world in the dark blue.

When the sun rises in a dark corner was it really true

in the morning everything dirty

maybe a little bit gray sometimes becomes grey too bright yellowIt 's a colorful way glow in all paintsyou can draw up the curtain and we are not saints but its time to move on

In the evening I see the dark clouds a mixture of red and brown a little bit sunlight behind the shadow

The stars ain't falling down.

sometimes becomes grey too bright yellow would be another way
